

Dewey Decimal

000's Book List

2010

Dewey Decimal System

- 000 Generalities
- 004 Computers
- 005 Computer Programs
- 010 Bibliography
- 020 Library and Information Science
- 030 General Encyclopedic Works
- 050 General Serials & their Indexes
- 060 General Organizations & Museums
- 070 News Media, Journalism, Publishing
- 080 General Collections
- 090 Manuscripts & Rare Books

Dewey Decimal 000's Book List

What Have You Changed Your Mind About? : Today's Leading Minds Rethink Everything

Edited by John Brockman

001.2 W51

When 150 well-known people were asked what they had changed their minds about, the answers were brilliant, eye-opening, fascinating and sometimes shocking. These essays will give you plenty to think about.

Fractal Time : The Secret Of 2012 And A New World Age

Gregg Braden.

001.9 B71

In an easy-to-read science and true-life accounts, prepare yourself for 2010; learn about the laws of fractal patterns and the ancient concept of cycles in time. You will look at time from a different perspective and see that patterns can be measured and predicted showing us what's in store for us in the future.

Green Tech : How To Plan And Implement Sustainable IT Solutions

Lawrence Webber and Michael Wallace
004 W41

Think about the huge number of toxic electronic equipment being improperly disposed of from business around the world. This book provides businesses some practical and easy steps to follow in going green. A company's energy and technology requirements are considerable and we all need to be more aware of reducing our carbon footprint on our environment. The book includes a list of useful Web sites.

Jacquard's Web : How A Hand-Loom Led To The Birth Of The Information Age

James Essinger
004.09 E87

Pick up this book to learn more about the history of the computer, starting with Joseph-Marie Jacquard of Lyons, of France who developed the punched card used in computer rooms and created a revolution. The author brings a touching quality to the book as he talks about a Chinese princess, monks from Constantinople, kings and queens of Europe, Napoleon and Charles Babbage, a Victorian computer pioneer. A must read for any computer enthusiast.

Fix Your Own Computer For Seniors For Dummies

004.16084 S25

Learn to diagnose and fix simple PC problems with this easy-to-follow guide written for first time computer users. This book explains how to diagnose basic PC problems, fix common issues, how to avoid common mistakes. It shows how to defragment the hard drive, clean and organize files. Add external devices to your computer such as, scanners, printers, flash drives, Web cameras and more. Get to know the inside and out of your computer.

The Whole Five Feet : What The Great Books Taught Me About Life, Death, And Pretty Much Everything Else

Christopher R. Beha
011.73 B43

A 27 year old Princeton graduate quits his job and moves back home to help care for his beloved aunt who is dying of cancer and he decides to dedicate himself to reading all 51 volumes of the Harvard Classics Library. A cancer survivor himself, he is hit with life's expected tribulations, his aunt's death, a torn meniscus and a case of Lyme disease, so many of the volumes go unread. However he does manage to read many of the books and shares his thoughts. This book is highly recommended for anyone looking for a thought-provoking, but not an overwhelming book.

Worldly Wisdom : Great Books And The Meanings Of Life

James Sloan Allen
011.73 A38

Taking some 30 and more classic works, the author discusses each book giving insight into understanding human life and what it means to be human. This book is filled with wisdom to live your life.

Read It And Eat : A Month-By-Month Guide To Scintillating Book Club Selections And Mouthwatering Menus

Sarah Gardner
028.1 G36

This is a fun book to read especially for book groups. The author plans out a whole year's worth of books and accompanying recipes. It is an excellent book to refer to for ideas in selecting book choices and entertaining ideas. Discussion questions are also included.

The Concise Guide To Sounding Smart At Parties : An Irreverent Compendium Of Must-Know Info From Sputnik To Smallpox And Mao To Marie Curie

David Matalon & Chris Woolsey

031.02 M37

An assortment of trivia that is bound to give cocktail conversationalists more than enough intellectual ammunition for a lifetime of parties.

Rules Of Thumb : A Life Manual

Tom Parker

031.02 P36

A mix of folk wisdom, common sense, shared experience, the advice of experts, and the kind of group think that's made websites like Wikipedia so vital, Rules of Thumb is the impulsive compendium of 1,000 general principles that apply to every facet of life. Collected by Tom Parker for over 25 years, these are rules that are practical, quirky, and as entertaining to read as they are relevant to the reader.

I Used To Know That : Stuff You Forgot From School

Caroline Taggart

031.02 T33

This book contains information that is helpful and entertaining. People forget lots of what they learned in school and this is an easy quick book to help you remember those bits of factual information that slipped from your mind. Witty, engaging, and entertaining, this book is one you'll pick up again and again. The book touches on a variety of subjects: science, history, math, literature, religion and nature to name a few.

What Is Happening To News : The Information Explosion And the Crisis In Journalism

Jack Fuller

070.4 F84

Across America, newspapers that have defined their cities for over a century are rapidly failing, their circulations are plummeting. Nightly news programs push the negative shock stories. Young people are turning to the humorist Jon Stewart as their primary source of information. Veteran editor and newspaperman, Jack Fuller explains why information overload of our contemporary life makes us dramatically more receptive to sensational news and how journalists need to adapt to this new environment.

Newsonomics : Twelve New Trends That Will Shape The News You Get

Ken Doctor

070.4 D61

The Twelve Laws of Newsonomics reveal the kinds of news that readers will get and that journalists (and citizens) will produce as we enter the first truly digital news decade. Advances in digital technology are reshaping news media but there is still no substitute for good writing and solid reporting.

By-Line : Pittsburgh's Beloved Columnist Shares A Lifetime Of Interviews And Observations

Barbara Cloud

070.44 C55

This is a collection of thoughts and interviews from, Barbara Cloud who found her calling as a journalist with Pittsburgh's major newspapers. She gave us insight into the fashion world, interviews with famous and not-so-famous people, personal essays about everyday life and people found her charming and endearing. For many, Barbara Cloud became a household name.

Killed Cartoons : Casualties From The War On Free Expression

Edited by David Wallis

070.442 K54

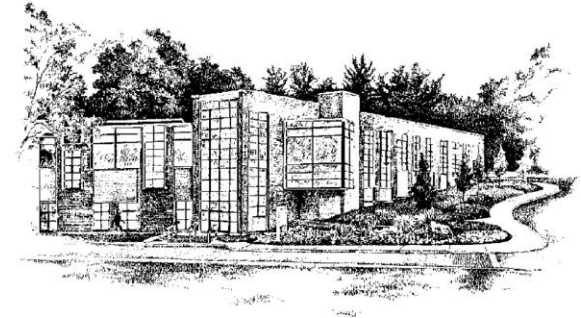

This book is full of cartoons, each accompanied by a brief narrative describing why it was killed. Their artists include Pulitzer Prize winners Garry Trudeau, Doug Marlette, Paul Conrad, Paul Szep, and Mike Luckovich; renowned illustrators Al Hirschfeld and Edward Sorel; and young turks Ted Rall and Keith Knight and comics creators Carol Lay, Ward Sutton, and Peter Kuper. Sometimes the editorial vetoes are understandable but just as often what has been squelched is surprisingly benign

Found : The Best Lost, Tossed, And Forgotten Items From Around The World

Davy Rothbart

081 F67

From a funky collection of letters, flyers and other miscellany from the pages of Found magazine, Rothbart, the magazine's editor and founder, has pulled together the funniest, weirdest and most moving items found by himself and his readers over the years. There are some explanations, but mostly, the notes and letters speaks for themselves.

Mt. Lebanon Public Library
16 Castle Shannon Boulevard
Pittsburgh, PA 15228-2252

412-531-1912

www.mtlebanonlibrary.org

Hours:

Monday through Thursday: 9—9

Friday and Saturday: 9—5

Closed Sunday